

Environmental Fiscal Reform

“A Practice-Orientated Training for Policy Makers, Administration Officials, Consultants and NGO Representatives”

GGKP Asia WS Bogor

4th of June 2013

GIZ and the EFR Training

Objectives of Training Course

- Solid understanding of basic EFR concepts and definitions
- In-depth knowledge of EFR approaches in various sectors and countries
- Detailed knowledge of the potential benefits and limitations of EFR
- Increased capacity to discuss and design appropriate EFR strategies and/or the integration of EFR Instruments in Green Economy/Green Growth Strategies

Target Groups

- Representatives of relevant ministries
- Other public administration officials
- Advisors and NGO representatives
- Focus on delivery in developing countries and economies in transition.
- Group size: 10-20 participants.

Methodology

Group Work

Casework methodology
Harvard Business School

Development of conclusions via debate

Practical approach

Range of materials
“testing” EFR elements in different contexts

Modules

- 1. Introduction
- 2. Policy Cycle
- 3. Instruments
- 4. Environmental Harmful Subsidies
- 5. Waste Management
- 6. Action Plan

GIZ Services - EFR

- Studies and Analysis

- Studies on EFR Options,
- Analysis of environmental and fiscal policy
- Stakeholder Analysis,
- Cost-benefit analysis

- Trainings

- PES Training

- Advisory Services at different stages of EFR Implementation

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION!

- ANY QUESTIONS?

Contact

Sector project:

Rioplus - Environmental Policy and Sustainable Development

Unit 47 Environment and Climate Change

Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit
(GIZ) GmbH

Godesberger Allee 119, 53175 Bonn, Germany

T +49 228 24934-271

E rioplus@giz.de

I www.giz.de/rioplus or:

www.foes.de

