Turning climate ambition into sustainable investment

KGN DTF

What is KGNDTF?

The Korea Green New Deal Trust Fund (KGNDTF) is a multi-year funding initiative that helps countries transform climate commitments into investment-ready projects.

Why does it matter?

Many climate projects fail not due to lack of ambition, but due to gaps in:

- ✓ Project preparation
- ✓ Policy & regulatory readiness
- ✓ Access to finance

Results

USD 2.07 Billion

in Investment Mobilized

Across 48 green growth projects worldwide from an initial 11.65 million allocation.

65,100

How KGNDTF Works

KGNDTF operates across the full project value chain:

- 1 Identify opportunities
Country-driven priorities aligned with NDCs and national plans
- 2 Develop & de-risk projects
Technical studies, policy alignment, and financial modeling
- 3 Build partnerships
Governments, investors, Korean institutions, and MDBs
- 4 Mobilise investment
Private finance, concessional loan and blended finance

The fund prioritizes early engagement with investors so every project meets investment requirements from inception.
